PROGRESS IS MADE IN NEGOTIATIONS OF WAGE SCALE

Secretary of Labor Urges Quick Action by Conferees.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—There were evidences of real progress today in the wage scale negotiations between coal miners and operators of the central competitive field, altho no meeting of the joint wage scale committee was held. The conference was postponed until tomorrow at the request of the operators who spent the day preparing a reply to the demands re-submitted Saturday by the workers.

Reports were prepared to show the effect that higher wages taken in connection with the suspension of production would have on coal prices this winter.

Secretary Wilson does not intend to allow negotiations to drag altho he will not interfere as long as the wage scale committee are making headway it was said. The administration is determined to bring about the resumption of production without delay and intends to hasten the settlement between operators and miners, it was said. Officials of the department of labor, stated, however, that reports to the effect that the government might take over mines and operate them were without foundation. Such action they said would be taken only as the last resort.

Meanwhile in behalf of the central field operators a service of telegraphic reports from mining centers was given out, showing that not a mine was operating in its territory.

In West Virginia production was close to normal, except where held back by coal shortage. The reports show that the court injunction calling off the strike is not being obeyed," said Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators' scale committee in the central territory.

John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers met this afternoon smilingly.

"The mine workers have obeyed the order of the court implicitly," he said. "Its mandate required that the strike order be cancelled and revoked. That step was taken. The court's order which was issued tonight by the regional director of the railroad administration. The action means the possible closing of cotton mills and manufacturing plants when their present stocks are exhausted.

Orders curtailing delivery of coal in the south to the first five classes in the priority list, which does not include manufacturing plants, were issued tonight by the regional director of the railroad administration. The action means the possible closing of cotton mills and manufacturing plants when their present stocks are exhausted.

Posseman slain by own comrades. CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 17.—John Haney Tenino, posseman who was slain in the hunt of I. W. W. murder suspects in the Hanford valley last Saturday afternoon, died from the fire of his own comrades thru an accidental brush between separate parties. It was learned tonight when the body of the deputy was brought here.

Possemen who fired upon Haney believed that they were being approached by the fugitive radicals, armed and desperate, according to their story. Those who returned tonight with Haney's body say they encountered no signs of Bert Bland, Ole Hansen and a third I. W. W. who are believed on evidence and confessions to have fled into the fastness of the heavy timber.

State Insurance Commissioners Meet. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—State insurance commissioners, at their national convention today decided to retain the method used last year in arriving at the value of securities submitted by insurance companies.

This method provides that the value of the securities on November 1, 1918, shall be added to those for November 1, 1919, and the total divided by two to obtain an average. This plan, however, was made to specify that the valuation shall not at any time exceed the market price as of Dec. 31, 1919.

JUDGE CARPENTER DEALS LIQUOR INTERESTS BLOW

Rules War Time Prohibition and Enforcement Constitutional

CONCURRED BY FITZ HENRY

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The liquor interests were given another setback today when Judge George A. Carpenter handed a down a decision in the United States district court which held that the wartime prohibition act and the Volstead enforcement act were constitutional.

Judge Carpenter announced that Judge Louis FitzHenry of Peoria, Illinois, had concurred in the decision.

In making his ruling, Judge Carpenter denied the suit for injunction brought by Attorney Henry Mayer, representing Hannah and Hogg, wholesale liquor dealers, to restrain United States District Attorney Charles F. Clyne and Julius F. Smetanka, a factor of internal revenue, from enforcing the dry act and the enforcement law.

Under the fifth amendment to the constitution, which provides that legislation restricting personal liberty of individuals may be passed if the community as a whole is benefited, Judge Carpenter held that congress was empowered to pass the two acts involved in the case.

He held the two acts constitutional because demobilization of industries mobilized by the war was not yet complete and that the country was still in a state of war, regardless of General Pershing's statement that army demobilization was complete, and despite the president's veto of the Volstead act indicating that the war was over.

Judge FitzHenry is expected to hand down his decision in Peoria tomorrow.

Attorney Mayer after the decision had been read said: "I have never heard a better argument on the side of the government in my experience as counsel for the liquor interests."

The decision of Judge Carpenter today in favor of the drys brings the total number of judges who have favored prohibition up to seven, while the liquor forces have gained but two decisions. Judge FitzHenry, who concurred in Judge Carpenter's decision and who will hand down his decision in Peoria tomorrow will bring the dry total to eight.

Recites Decision. Referring to the national prohibition act, Judge Carpenter in his decision said: "If the state of Kansas under its police power had the right to prohibit the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits so had each one of the other forty seven states in the union. If all of the states had the right, granting that the federal government under the constitution while prosecuting the war was entitled to exercise police power necessary and proper for the efficient carrying on of the war, there is no reason why the central government could not prohibit against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in all of the states without compensation to the owners and dealers."

The judge further said: "Congress had the power before the eighteenth amendment was passed to make police regulations as the aid of war. That amendment certainly did not destroy that right. If that amendment had been passed in January, 1917, with the one year of grace for the liquor interests to readjust themselves and their business could anyone in reason contend that congress had not the power in April, 1917, to prohibit the manufacture, sale or even use of ardent spirits?"

"I cannot agree with the decision of Judge Brown in Rhode Island that the eighteenth amendment necessitates the declaring of the war and national prohibition acts unconstitutional."

"What congress has done is in the interests of public welfare and public morals. If plaintiffs, not entitled to compensation, the prohibition laws being valid may sell and distribute their product the damage to the general welfare has been done and never can be undone. If the action of congress was wise and so we must assume it to be; believing the prohibition acts to be lawful, even were the question here involved doubtful, we would have to resolve the doubt in favor of the government."

FOOD PROFITEERS. SENTENCED. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—George and Julius Roth, the first persons to be convicted here of food profiteering, were given short jail sentences and fined $100 each today. George, who is 21 years old, got 30 days and Julius, a year his junior, one day.

U. S. SUPREME COURT TO HEAR ARGUMENTS ON PROHIBITION BILL

Decision Not Expected Until Court Reconvenes on December 8.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—While arguments on the validity of the war time prohibition act will be heard by the supreme court Thursday, a decision is not expected before December 8 when the court reconvenes after a recess announced today to begin next Monday.

Meantime machinery for the enforcement of the act which has been set up by the internal revenue bureau is getting under way and is expected to be in full operation before the end of the week. John F. Kramer of Ohio, assumed his duties today as federal prohibition commissioner and announcement of district and state directors is expected within a day or two.

Should the supreme court hold the war time act unconstitutional millions of gallons of whiskey and wine would be placed on the market immediately in those states which had not voted out liquor before the operation of the federal act.

Those longing for a "wet" Christmas are not placing all their hopes on a favorable opinion by the supreme court. In spite of the peace treaty situation many opponents of prohibition expect peace to be an accomplished fact before the end of the present special session.

White house has announced that immediately upon the proclamation of peace, President Wilson will declare war-time prohibition at an end.

FORMER MINNESOTA CONGRESSMAN LOCKED IN REFRIGERATOR CAR

Taken from Stage by Legion Members as He Was About to Talk Against League.

ORTONVILLE, Mich., Nov. 17.—Ernest Lundeen, former congressman from the Fifth Minnesota district, who was scheduled to speak at a local theater tonight against the league of nations, was taken from the stage by members of the local post of the American Legion, escorted to a refrigerator car on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. The train was just pulling out of here and it is believed trainmen did not see Lundeen put aboard.

Released Later. Appleton, Minn., Nov. 17.—Ernest Lundeen, former congressman from Minnesota who was locked in a refrigerator car at Ortonville tonight, arrived here shortly before 11 p. m. Members of the local crew hear his shouts, released him from the car and permitted him to ride in the caboose to this city. Lundeen apparently was none the worse for his experience.

U. S. CONVINCED OF JENKINS' INNOCENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Convinced of the innocence of William C. Jenkins, American consul at Acapulco, Mexico, of the charge that he connived with Federico Corrova the rebel who kidnapped him, the state department has made strong representations against Jenkins' arrest. It was said officially that information already at hand justified the presumption that Jenkins was innocent.

State department officials regard the charges that Jenkins conspired with assassins as highly improbable in view of the rumor current in Mexico City that the eighteen pesos upon whose testimony the arrest was predicated by the state authorities of Puebla had been threatened with death unless they testified against Jenkins. The pesos were said to have been held in communication by the police authorities after the arrest.

RETURNS FROM FRENCH ELECTIONS. Paris, Nov. 17.—(By The Associated Press.)—Complete returns of Sunday's elections for 404 seats in the chamber of deputies, almost two thirds of the chamber—show that 22 new members have been elected. The extreme Socialists will have thirty five seats, having won six and lost thirty-seven.

It is noteworthy that the dissident Socialists who separated from the unified Socialist party won six seats and lost none. The Independent Socialists won sixteen seats.

S. supervisor of census announced today. Preference will be given to negroes who are in the military service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Counsel for Emma Goldman issued a statement tonight in which he denied his client ever had influenced Cecil M. Kinley, as assassinated President McKinley, as charged by Attorney General Palmer in reply to a senate inquiry regarding the "deportation status" of Miss Goldman and Alexander Berkman.

GLASS UNDECIDED WHEN HE WILL RESIGN FROM TREASURY POST

Will Send Letter of Acceptance of Senatorship to Gov. Davis Today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury had not determined tonight just when he would resign to accept appointment as successor to Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, who died last week.

After Mr. Glass was notified by Gov. Davis that he had been selected over a host of others, he sought the advice of President Wilson, who urged him to accept. He probably will send a formal letter of acceptance to Gov. Davis tomorrow.

In the absence of any direct statement from Mr. Glass there was difference of opinion in official quarters tonight as to the probable time of his retirement from the treasury. Ordinarily, he would not resign before December 1st, the time for the opening of the regular session of congress, but some Democratic leaders were said to have advised that he present his credentials immediately and thus help out in the treaty fight.

There was much speculation as to who would be appointed by President Wilson to take Mr. Glass' place as head of the treasury department.

RAILROADERS WILL CONSIDER OFFER OF DIRECTOR HINES

Call for Joint Conference of General Chairmen of Brotherhoods.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 17.—A telegraph call for a joint conference of the four great railroad brotherhoods to consider Director General Hines offer of slow freight service overtime was issued today after an all day conference of the brotherhood chiefs.

The meeting which will be held Monday in Cleveland is to obtain an expression from the membership of the proposed scheme of overtime payment. They probably will also consider demands for general wage increases which have already been made by two of the brotherhoods according to W. G. Lee, president of the brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who said, however, such is not the purpose of the conference.

The brotherhood chiefs maintain that the reasonable time period requested by President Wilson to allow the administration time to lower the high cost of living rather than advance the wages of railroad men has expired with no material action having been taken.

BRITISH WANT USE OF GERMAN SHIPS

Paris, Nov. 17.—The status of the Imperial and other German ships aggregating 170,000 tons, now in the possession of the United States was discussed by the supreme council today.

Great Britain has claimed that the action of the United States shipping board in retaining the vessels violates the agreement in the council that they should be turned over to the British as soon as they had finished transporting American troops. The British representatives today explained that England was anxious to return to their colonies eager to men to their homes in various parts of the world, but whose return was being delayed because the United States was retaining possession of the German ships in New York harbor.

The men were taken by a posse at Maurice, and brought in automobiles to Sioux City. They imprisoned themselves in a barn five miles from Le Mars after their escape and remained for 48 hours.

HOUSE PASSES ESCH RAILROAD BILL 203 TO 159

Provide Private Ownership and Federal Supervision.

MEASURE NOW
GOES TO SENATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Esch railroad bill, providing for private ownership and operation of rail carriers, under broad federal supervision, was passed tonight by the House, 203 to 159. The measure goes to the senate, but it will not be taken up there until the regular session in December.

A majority of the Democratic members opposed the bill after their failure to eliminate the provisions for government guarantee of revenues of the carriers for the first six months of period of private operation. Representative Sims, Tennessee, ranking Democratic member of the house interstate commerce committee that framed the measure led the fight on the guaranty, declaring it a subsidy. A motion to eliminate it was defeated 200 to 165, on substantially apolitical division.

The house reaffirmed 253 to 112 its stand on the labor section providing only for the voluntary conciliation of labor disputes. Representative Kitchen, North Carolina, former Democratic leader attacked the labor section as leaving the settlement of disputes largely with the railway unions. He declared "the brotherhoods could nullify the provisions ten days after passage of the bill by refusing to appoint representatives to the boards created to settle controversies."

Preceding the final showdown by separate rolls the house spent the day in considering numerous extension of the powers of the interstate commerce commission. Its last act was to place the commission in control of all capital issues of the roads.

The proposed new rule for rate making was eliminated after a bitter fight. Efforts to prevent the interstate commerce commission from being given authority to control interstate rates, imposing an "undue burden" on interstate commerce were defeated. By this section, the house enacted into law the famous "Shreveport case" after which intra-state rates in the southwest generally were increased to remove a discrimination said to have existed against Shreveport in favor of Dallas.

PROVISIONS OF BILL.

The railroad bill as passed by the house does this: "Provides capital and insures the financial future of the lines during the period immediately after private operation is renewed. Creates machinery for the voluntary conciliation of labor troubles; and extends federal authority over railroad transportation by increasing the powers of the interstate commerce commission. The federal control would end with the month in which the bill is enacted and rate control continued in effect for six months unless changed. Roads are ordered to ask the interstate commerce commission for rate advance within sixty days and government guaranty is denied carriers failing to do so.

As a guaranty the government agrees that the revenues of the carriers for the first six months of renewed private operation shall equal the return paid during federal control as rental for the use of the lines. Short line railroads and express companies, would also receive this guaranty. Government five year loans at six per cent also may be obtained by lines within 26 months after the end of federal control and to carry out the provision $250,000,000 is made available.

The funding plan for settlement of $775,000,000 the roads will owe the government at the end of this year provides for a set-off of approximately $400,000,000 the amount of government rental. Payment of this unliquidated indebtedness would be in ten annual installments.

For settlement of labor troubles the bill would set up machinery in vogue before and during federal control for employment and employer voluntarily conducting negotiations with an added provision for second appeal board to reach decisions if the former fail. No penalty is provided against strike or lock out and on all boards the workers and the rail owners would have equal representation.

INVESTIGATION ORDERED

Washington, Nov. 17.—Without opposition the house tonight authorized its immigration committee headed by Chairman Johnson of Washington to conduct an investigation within the next few weeks into the delays in the deportation of aliens held at Ellis island. The hearings will be held in New York and this city.

SUPREME COURT RECESSES

Washington, Nov. 17.—The supreme court will take a recess next Monday until December 8.

OVERTHROW OF RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT PLANNED YEARS IN ADVANCE

Martens Tells of Plotting with Lenine and Trotsky in 1901 and 1903.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, "ambassador of the Russian soviet republic" plotted in Germany and Switzerland with Nikolai Lenine and Leon Trotsky for the overthrow of the Russian imperial government he testified today. He was deported from Russia after serving three years imprisonment for his revolutionary activities.

Martens stated that upon his arrival in Berlin he was pressed into the German military service and served in barracks. "On what theory did the German military authorities press you into the army?" he was asked. "Because my father and mother were German citizens," he replied.

On leaving the army he entered the Charlottenburg Polytechnical Institute in Germany, he said, and later became an engineer in the employ of a Hamburg firm. For 12 years he was engaged in propaganda work, plotting the overthrow of the Russian government from Germany, he said. During this period he testified he conferred with Lenine and Trotsky in 1901 in Switzerland and in 1903 in Berlin. Part of the propaganda was hatched in France and Switzerland, he said. He was organizer of the Russian workmen in the revolution in Russia in 1905, he said, and added that his activities were not interfered with in Germany.

"Were you under pay when you were in Switzerland consulting with Lenine?" Martens was asked. "I was working as an engineer," he answered.

His conference with Lenine was for the purpose of bringing together the Bolsheviks and Mensheviks for concerted action against the czar's government, he said.

HOPE TO PREVENT RADICAL INFLUENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—Agents of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice are bending their efforts toward prevention of outside radical influence being exerted upon bituminous coal miners now on strike it was learned today.

Reports of plans of red leaders to enter the coal fields and urge adherence of the law and particularly the injunction issued in federal court here to prevent encouragement of the strike have reached government agents and steps are being taken to prevent the carrying out of these plans. In one case, it was stated today an agitator who was on his way to the Indiana fields was overtaken by federal officials and warned to keep away. In a statement given out today by Dan W. Sims, special United States district attorney in the coal miners case it was declared that miners as individuals are violating the injunction of the court when they refuse to return to work.

ATTORNEY'S BILL TOO MUCH FOR STRIKERS

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Members of the Chicago district strike council were astounded to learn when they received a bill for $7,000 for seven weeks' service from Paul Glaser, attorney for the council.

In presenting the bill Glaser said he had lost $18,000 while doing service for the council. He asserted that he had been offered $25 each to send 1,000 Russian workers back to the mills but that he had refused to do so. He intimated that he controlled the actions of the workers and the offer, he said, came from the steel official then a prominent judge.

Steel workers in Gary indicated their opposition to paying the bill, and it was rumored that the council would turn it down.

PRINCE OF WALES ENDS VACATION

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Nov. 17.—After three days spent in golfing and tramping over the pine clad mountains of West Virginia, the Prince of Wales left tonight for New York. There he faces a strenuous program of public receptions and entertainments lasting to the moment he sails for England next Saturday.

The prince spent practically the whole of the last day of his vacation on the golf links. In the evening he was entertained at a ten dance given by Mrs. H. H. Rogers. A famous jazz band had been brought from New York for the occasion and the prince danced until the last moment before train time.

MUST GET AFTER WOMEN

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 17.—Announcing that a large number of women were making wine and other intoxicants of elderberries, dandelions, cherries and other fruits and plants, Miss Cora Stoddard, director of the bureau of scientific temperance investigation in an address before the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention here today said: "We must go after these women as well as the men."

COAL STRIKE SITUATION ENTERS INTO NEW PHASE

Ohio and Kansas Will Take Over and Operate Mines

OTHER STATES
MAY FOLLOW

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—A new phase entered the coal strike situation today, when proceedings were started in Ohio and Kansas in an effort to resume operation of the mines in those states.

In Kansas the large mining properties in Crawford and Cherokee counties, tonight passed into the control of the state when he state supreme court issued orders and named receivers for the properties. The action followed the filing of quo warranto proceedings by Attorney General Richard J. Hopkins to bring about the receivership. The Ohio supreme court today was asked by George H. Phelps, Findley lawyer, a direct Attorney General Price of that city to begin ouster proceedings against Ohio coal mining companies organized under the laws of the state for failure to operate and to have receivers appointed for the mines.

Another feature of the situation developed in North Dakota where Governor Frazer had ordered the mines, Adjutant General Fraser and Captain L. R. Baird of the North Dakota home guards today were ordered by District Judge W. L. Nussle to appear before him November 19, and show cause why the court should not issue a permanent injunction restraining the home guards from striking, holding and retaining possession of private coal mines at Williston, N. D.

Governor Frazer, who is in Chicago attending a convention of the public ownership league, asserted when shown press dispatches that he had expected such action. He said that if a decision in Washington was rendered in favor of the operators, he would appeal to the supreme court of the state. In an interview he declared that it was his opinion that operators from very field would watch the case closely as it might have a nationwide effect should the state win.

While reports indicated that there was evidences of progress today in the wage scale negotiations between miners and operators in Washington, the coal shortage situation was growing serious in various parts of the country. The southwestern regional coal committee in St. Louis tonight requested all commercial organizations in the district to discontinue electric advertising after 6 o'clock each night and to reduce illumination to a minimum both day and night.

Orders which may cause the closing of cotton mills and manufacturing plants in the south were issued tonight by the regional director of the railroads in that section of the country. The orders curtail the delivery of coal to the first five classes in the priority list.

Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma, today appointed an commission to investigate the coal situation in his state. Officials of the executive's office denied reports that the governor intended to seize the mines of the state. The regional coal committee in Chicago today decided to halt all distribution of coal here for forty eight hours, except for emergency needs. The court order in Kansas affects approximately 150 mines in the Pittsburgh district state officials said. Under the order the governor expects to have the mines in operation by the end of this week.

A total of 106 trains have been unloading since the strike began. A strike of coal miners in Colorado effective Friday morning was called today by George O. Johnson, president of the United Mine Workers, District No. 15, unless the operators reinstated all striking union men. The order affects all mines not operating under contract.

RAIDS ON REDS IN NEW YORK RENEWED

New York, Nov. 17.—Raids on alleged "reds" were renewed in New York tonight when detectives attached to the bomb squad armed with federal warrants arrested 22 men in a building on Fifth street.

The Philadelphia North-American says: "It is thought the day may not be far off when our alien population may be requested to decide whether they hold it better to be Red than to be resident."

There is only one sure thing about the mining situation and that is the people will forget by next summer all the dangers of a fuel shortage and as usual will delay the purchase of winter coal until the fall months.

There were hundreds of visitors at the new reservoir Sunday. The number gave some idea of the crowds to be expected when the grounds surrounding the "big lake" have been made a part of the park system. If you feel discouraged at any time about the city's future just take a little journey to the reservoir. It will cheer you up.

More evidence of Carranza's duplicity is found in the fact that his nephew, Mexican ambassador to Spain, has been supervising the purchase of large quantities of ammunition which has been shipped into Mexico. This action is in violation of the treaty of Paris and gives color to the war-like intentions of Mexico. But the U. S. policy toward Mexico is so lenient that new disclosures with reference to Carranza seem to have little effect.

The Standard Oil Co. was victimized by safe blowers at one of its Chicago offices Sunday and the yegmen made away with $8,000. This is just as much an offense against the law as if a neighborhood store had been robbed, but probably the Standard Oil Co. will not have to pass a dividend because of this safe blowing.

The latest strike is that of embalmers in St. Louis. They complain that their wages of $20 a week are entirely insufficient since they are called upon to work any hour of the day or night and seven days a week. It goes without saying that the demands of these strikers will be met, for since death and taxes are enrolled as the two certainties of this world, the services of the embalmers rank among the necessities.

THE MOST PRESSING PROBLEM

The National Republican in a very timely editorial declares that while there are important matters before congress, there is nothing quite so pressing as a means for bringing about industrial peace. The Republican suggests that this can best be done not thru a conference or commission but by legislation representing the best thought of the times. "The duty of providing a program of industrial peace devolves not upon any 'conference' or congress of individuals appointed for that purpose by the president, but upon the Congress of the United States."

"Other measures of a domestic nature sink into insignificance as compared with the vital necessity of enacting legislation that will stop the settlement of industrial disputes by what amounts to civil war. Unless we have production in the United States, the question of distribution amounts to nothing in any of its phases. The paralysis of industry incident to the continuance of industrial conflict, urged on in many instances by revolutionary radicals who see in this situation an opportunity to promote propagandic ends, is becoming a menace to the people of the United States. The clouds have been gathering for months and no step has been taken looking to the permanent intervention of the national government with a view to the determination of industrial relationships on the basis of equity, rather than of force and coercion."

It is absolutely essential not merely to the national welfare, but to national safety, that Congress should put the government of the United States in possession of the means of requiring the equitable determination, from the standpoint of the public as well as of the contending interests involved, of industrial disputes, and the acceptance of these decisions with the same respect that is accorded the decisions of other courts.

"Congress could do nothing that would so much appeal to the people of this country as a real constructive measure, as to enact legislation going to the limit of congressional authority in the creation of industrial courts, not political boards, but courts of justice, in which there shall be represented not merely capital and labor, but the general public; the decisions of which shall be arrived at after public procedure, according to rules of law, not as a mere jockeying for compromise or partisan advantage. "Must the country wait until the business of the nation is paralyzed and the prosperity of the people destroyed by the use of coercive measures which amount to civil war, before a step is taken to remedy the existing situation by legislation compelling the submission of industrial disputes to public tribunals, with powers of deliberation, conciliation and decision?"

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

The Employer.
The man who owns the post-hole works gets sympathy from none; we sympathize with all his clerks, who say they need more money; and with the artisans we sigh when they the story tell, of how their children wall for pie and oysters on the shell. But for the owner of the place no pity can we spare, though furrowed is his weary face, and graying is his hair. His grievances inspire no ode, his troubles are a bore, though he's the man who hears the load, the man who walks the floor. He is the man who stands the gaff, who wrestles with despair, and while his merry workmen laugh he tears his scanty hair. The toilers work eight hours a day, and leave the factory door, and sash around and sing and play, but he works twenty-four. Oh, with the janitor we weep, when he his woes has traced, whose limousine is poor and cheap, his diamonds mostly paste. And to the man who keeps the books we all in pity draw, and hear his tale, and say, "Gad-zooks! There ought to be a law!" But pity seldom is bestowed on him who needs it more, upon the man who bears the load, the man who walks the floor.

Geraldine Farrar

The World and Its Woman

For the first time in her career Geraldine Farrar appears with her husband, Lou Tellegen. For the first time in her career Geraldine Farrar is backed by a super-production that is already astonishing moving picture goers throughout the country.

The upheaval of royalty and how it affected each human heart was never so realistically depicted as in this gigantic Geraldine Farrar picture—a picture that will rank with the greatest you have ever seen. It is another triumph for "America's most talked of woman"—a photoplay that will hold your interest until "The End" flashes on the screen.

HERE ON PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS

Dr. George Bley of Beards-town was in the city yesterday on professional business.

F. C. Griswold was one of the city visitors from White Hall yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander were city representatives of Concord yesterday.

THE OBSERVATORY

The Bolshevik army has taken Gdov. About the only comment anyone is interested enough to make is Gdosh!

It is hoped that everybody will stop fighting on Thanksgiving day long enough to give thanks for the peace our country has enjoyed the last year.

However, it is pleasant to see so many evidences of harmony in the Illinois press recently. The Republican editors hail the result of the Massachusetts election as a great G. O. P. comeback and the Democrats agree that it was a great vindication of law and order.

Article X of the league covenant now has been put thru the Americanization process. All aliens take note—it's the coming fashion.

Wild game is said to be unusually plentiful this year because so many of the young men who otherwise would have harvested the game crop last fall were overseas hunting Germans.

The goosebone weather prophets having predicted a mild winter, everyone is frantically trying to get more coal.

When it pleases you to have some double-chinned widow make eyes at you, when you begin to build tall stories on flimsy foundations, when people commence to consult you about the weather tomorrow, when they laugh at you instead of with you, when you have an automobile appetite and a wheelbarrow digestion, and when you discover that all young men are infernal fools, you are growing old.

The Difference.
"You can tell a man from the country every time," said the city cousin.

"Mebby," replied the country cousin, "but you can't tell a man from the city anything, anytime."

Lighting Problem Solved

For the factory and the store, for offices and public buildings, and even for some rooms in the home, Mazda C lamps are money-savers.

Mazda Daylight lamps, as the name implies, make possible daytime lighting effects after dark. The color and quality of light from these lamps approaches afternoon sun-light.

In the store window they give added life to any display of merchandise. Inside the store colorful wares lose nothing of their daytime appearance. The color quality of Mazda Daylight lamps, known also as Mazda C-2 lamps, renders them especially valuable to dry good stores, clothiers, jewelers, tobacconists, milliners, artists, surgeons and dentists.

All Mazda C and Mazda Daylight lamps up to and including 200 watt sizes fit ordinary lighting sockets.

The Road-In New Overland 4 on Three-Point Cantilever Springs

You expect a bad road to ride as it looks. It did, until the introduction of the Overland 4 Springbase.

Overland 4 does not change the road, but it does change the manner in which you can ride on it. It gives you comfort instead of discomfort. It gives you a smooth, sailing sensation instead of bouncing and swaying.

The Diagonal attachment of Three-Point Cantilever Springs at the ends of a 130-inch Springbase gives long wheelbase roadsteadiness. Yet Overland 4 retains all the advantages—lightness, economy, and ease of handling, of 100-inch wheelbase. This means an altogether new standard of riding comfort, a noteworthy reduction in the wear and tear which lessens the efficiency of a car. The new springs give longer life to every tire and thus minimize upkeep and replacement costs. Tires wear longer because cushioned against hammering blows. Light weight means marked economy in gas, oil and running expense.

Overland 4's equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Demountable Rims. Come in and see this remarkable car. Ask for booklet, Overland 4 Touring, $845; Roadster, $845; Coupe, $1325; Sedan, $1375. Prices f. o. b. Toledo.

RECITAL GIVEN AT NORTHMINSTER CHURCH

"Miracle Concert" by Famous Tenor Pleases Many at Monday Evening Performance.

A "miracle concert" was the recital at Northminster church last evening by George Wilton Ballard, the well known Metropolitan tenor. Not one Mr. Ballard but two sang to the spell-bound audience. This phenomenon was accomplished by means of a graceful cabinet, which stood on the stage beside the artist and matched his performance note for note and tone for tone.

In the midst of Mr. Ballard's initial number on the program, his lips ceased to move, but his song went on. Slowly it dawned on the astonished audience that the artist was no longer singing, tho his voice came forth as clear and sweet as before. It seemed as if there were two artists on the stage—two singers, but only one voice. For the tones which came from the New Edison matched those from the living artist so perfectly that it was impossible to detect any difference.

The instrumental re-creations were as perfect as those of Mr. Ballard's delightful voice. The recreation was absolutely identical with the original in every particular.

The climax of the "miracle concert" came with the darkening of the room during one of Mr. Ballard's selections. The audience depended upon its powers of hearing alone in determining whether his voice came in double volume or only from the New Edison.

At first everyone doubted his own ability to judge, but as his previous work we forgotten in the spell of the song. Suddenly the lights were snapped on. The audience was astonished to discover that Mr. Ballard was not there at all and that the New Edison had furnished the song alone.

Such miracles are indeed the work of a magician—but a most prevalent one. For the wizard, Thos. Edison, who accomplished this miracle of re-creation, is as anxious that it shall add to the comfort and joy of mankind, as he has been that his other inventions be used for the good of the race.

Willard Osborne, the talented young violinist, who assisted Mr. Ballard, was heartily received by the large audience present.

Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, the bearers being J. W. Merriam, Jerry Clancy, E. M. Henderson, C. M. Sharpe, Harry Bell and George W. Davis.

Among those in attendance from out of the city were: Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Halpin, Springfield; Mrs. Joseph Menges, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bell, Mrs. John Brooker and John Briggs, Beardstown; Mrs. Short, White Hall.

Warner.

Funeral services for Mrs. Amelia Beck Warner were held from the residence of W. J. Wood, 363 West College street, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in charge of the Rev. J. P. Langton, rector of Trinity. Music was furnished by Mrs. Andrew Russell, Mrs. H. M. Andre, J. G. Ames, William Robinson and H. M. Andre. The ovens were cared for by Mrs. T. A. Ebrey, Mrs. Louis Piepenbring, Mrs. O. E. Tandy and Mrs. Coffman. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, the bearers being G. R. Bradley, Abe Coffman, Louis Piepenbring, A. Ebrey, W. H. Palmer and George A. Moore.

TYPHOID FEVER

In a sheep country a shepherd is placed on guard over a group of sheep. He is in honor bound to protect his flock. A sheep is a senseless kind of animal but should the shepherd go to sleep on his job or neglect to care for the most insignificant of his flock and a pack of wolves should swoop down and destroy the sheep, well—the shepherd would be looking for a healthier climate.

In Jacksonville there is a menace right in the heart of the town that is just as threatening to the life of the people as are a pack of wolves to the sheep.

In a small area bounded by Fayette street on the west, West street on the east, and Broadway alley on the south, five cases of typhoid fever have been reported in the past month.

In an old lodging house on Fayette street, two young boys died within a month in 1916 of typhoid, two girls are now in the hospital from this house, both typhoid patients. On West street there are three cases.

Does the typhoid germ sit primly in one spot? Are the people going to sit quietly and wait until there is an uncontrollable situation? The fifth in certain sections of this town is unthinkable. Now, this is not a sweet, dainty story, but the social worker sees many things under the crust and it might be a good thing to have the ingredients all clean, before the crust is put on lest the price be a severe one paid by the whole community.

Clean up the town. Something must be done. Conditions as they exist cannot long remain in a circumscribed area.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE IN BIG FINANCIAL DRIVE

mediate Purpose is to Secure sum of $500,000—Ultimate goal is $1,125,000—Appointment of Endowment Committee Announced.

This morning at the chapel exercises of Illinois College, copies of the Rambler will be distributed, is a feature number in which special attention of the alumni directed to the big financial drive for the college. Henry T. Rainey, Carrollton.

It will be noted that this committee might properly be termed the national committee as its members live in a score of different localities. Later on regional committees will be organized and an intensive campaign will be waged to secure this money which actual need demands.

On the first page of the special edition of the Rambler already mentioned there is given an appeal by John F. Downing of Kansas City and Harry J. Dunbaugh, of Chicago, alumni trustees, in which they make a clear statement of the facts relating to the campaign.

It goes without saying that there will be a great deal of local interest in this large undertaking and Dr. Rammelkamp can reasonably expect cordial support in the work which will now practically occupy his time for months to come. The alumni statement referred to follows:

College Has Paid Its Way.

"For eight successive years, due largely to President Rammelkamp's prudent and careful management, the College has been able to close her books annually without a deficit. She has been growing steadily, even during the war, in the attendance of students and in prestige in the community. Illinois College, now in her eighty-ninth year, has long ranked as one of the leading small colleges of the Middle West. But she faces a crisis. Altho she has passed out of the stage of precarious existence, and she has been growing in strength and in prestige, it has been at the tremendous sacrifice of those who are devoting their lives to the service of teaching.

"The members of her faculty are not receiving a living wage. The very slight increases in salary, including small bonuses to married members, which the Trustees have been able to grant, have not begun to keep pace with the enormous and constant increases in living expenses that have been going on since the war began. Even before the war, the crying need of Illinois College, and indeed of all the colleges of the land, was for sufficient funds to pay adequate salaries to the members of the teaching staff, and today, with living expenses double what they were before the war, the wonder is that any college, at the present scale of faculty salaries, can retain the good men they have.

Obligated to Alma Mater. "All graduates and non-graduates of Illinois College are under obligations to the College that they never repay. The slightest reflection will convince one of this. The tuition paid is insignificant. This of it—the maximum salary paid to our professors is $1,600! In these times a man with a family, or without a family, can not hope to live even in a city the size of Jacksonville, comfortably on this amount.

"The Trustees have recognized this, and at the risk of incurring a deficit, have granted for this year a small bonus of $200, to the married members of the faculty. But the resources of the College are already overtaxed. Temporary expedients are not enough. The time has come for the alumni and former students to rally loyally to the support of the College; to help her pay her professors and instructors enough to live decently; to help her keep pace with the tendency of the times; to help her stabilize her faculty and attract and retain the class of teachers that have so notably formed her faculty in the past.

Trustees Launch Campaign.

"The Trustees have launched a campaign for $1,250,000. $325,000 must be raised at once. Of this amount $200,000 is for general endowment, the income of which will be available for operating expenses, and especially for teachers' salaries and $125,000 for a much needed library building. We ought not to sleep until the whole amount is raised. Every Illinois College man and woman in the country surely will feel the obligation upon him to come to the rescue of the College at this time of need with the utmost that he can give. The Harvard Endowment Fund Committee, in asking Harvard alumni to subscribe, suggests a graduated scale of subscriptions based upon the amount of one's income, ranging from 1 or 2 per cent on incomes of $5,000 or under to 10 per cent on incomes of $100,000 or more, this amount to be paid annually for a period of five years.

"If the alumni of Illinois College were to do this, the whole amount would be easily raised. We urge a 100 per cent response to the roll call. Be sure that your name is one the list. Then when you have decided this much, see that the amount is the largest sum possible, taking into account the fact that you may spread the payment, if you please, over a period of four years."

CAPTURE YEGGS WHO BLEW BANK VAULT

Three Robbers of Palmyra Bank Captured at Atwater After Exciting Chase—Farmer Named Bivens Gave Robbers Lead of Shot.

Three yeggs, who blew the Palmyra bank early Monday morning were captured at Atwater late Monday afternoon after an exciting chase of about 15 miles. The men gave their names as William Carter, George Williams and William Gray.

Sheriff Weatherford, Chief of Police Kiloran and Deputy Sheriff Roach and Wright were communicated with by telephone about noon Monday and asked to come at once to assist in the capture of the robbers who were thought to be surrounded in a woods near Palmyra.

The local officers started on the trip and after reaching Girard received word the men had been captured at Atwater. They returned home and later Sheriff Weatherford received word from the officers giving the names of the men and stating that they were picking shot out of them which was received in a duel with a farmer named Bivens.

The explosion at the bank aroused the residents of Palmyra who hastily grabbed weapons of every description and started after the robbers in automobiles and other vehicles. Word was sent by telephone to the surrounding country and Strumpler's bloodhounds were taken to the scene from Springfield.

Bivens, the farmer who had the gun battle with the robbers, received word of the robbery and was told to be on the lookout for the men. He piled some wood in the road and thus forced the bandits to abandon their car. It was at this time that Bivens exchanged shots with the men and peppered them with bird shot.

The men abandoned the car and took to the woods. It was this that made the officers believe they had them surrounded as nearly 400 men were engaged in the hunt. However, the men managed to elude their pursuers and were captured nearly fifteen miles from the spot where they left the car.

Sheriff Weatherford said last night that he believed the man Williams was one of the men who attempted to rob the bank at Concord some weeks ago.

COUNCIL PLANS FOR FILTRATION PLANT

WILL INSPECT GROUNDS NEAR PUMPING STATION.

Receipts from Water Department to Be Kept in Separate Fund—Western Union Paving Repair Work Commended—Employees Seek More Pay.

At the council session Monday night an ordinance prepared by City Attorney Bellatti was read providing that money from the water department shall be kept in a separate fund for the payment of expenses of that department, in accordance with the law under which the city is now operating. A petition from the Railway and Light Co., was presented, asking permission to lay a railroad switch on Anna street and a portion of Sandy street. The purpose is to haul coal by rail to the company's plant and thus save haulage costs and also lessen heavy traffic on city streets.

The council will inspect the land near the south pumping station Wednesday to consider the location of the filtration plant and the new light and pumping station. The question of increasing the pay of city employees was presented.

Other matters of business considered were mostly of a routine character.

After Mayor Crabtree called for order, the roll was called by City Clerk Pyatt and indicated that all aldermen were present. A petition was read from the residents on Caldwell street asking for an electric light at the Wabash crossing. On motion of Alderman Graff and Williamson this was referred to the light company. The petition was signed by Herman Ellis, Newton Dewitt, Walter Pemberton, G. W. Willerton, J. E. Salby, E. M. Salby, H. C. Salby, Jacob Rodersheimer, T. J. Wilson, John Smith, J. W. Murgatroyd, Joseph DeGoveia.

Seek to Clear Title.

A petition was read from Minnie Simpson, Emma Printy and J. DeCastro asking action be taken to clear the title to lot 25 in Capps & Lamber's addition. It was set forth that certain pavement assessments had been paid but the record had not been released. Mention was made that all the walks on West Walnut street had been put down save in the front of David Smith's property. The council will see that the property owner has the walk put in or that it is taken care of by the contractor, who was awarded the contract for all unfinished work of that street.

Herman Ellis was one of the visitors present and complained of some bad culverts on Caldwell street and in the Second ward. This matter was referred to Street Commissioner White.

Alderman Williamson mentioned that the pavement on South Main street south of Morton avenue is showing many signs of wear and said that the contractor or bondsmen should be called upon to put the streets in condition.

Commissioner White said that the Western Union Co. had about completed the construction work for its conduit on Broadway alley and mentioned that the work had been done in such a way that the pavement was stronger than before. Alderman Flynn said that he wished some movement could be started for the placing of all wires in conduits.

Supt. Gray of the Railway and Light Co. mentioned that his company placed new poles along that alley within the last year and that the company wires are to be transferred to them and the old poles removed.

Alderman McGinnis reported the repair work in progress on the city building.

Dam Nears Completion.
Alderman Chapin reported that if favorable weather continues that work on the dam and reservoir will be finished within seven or eight days. When asked by the mayor with reference to the work on the Vandallia road, he said it would take considerably longer to complete the work there.

On motion of Alderman Flynn with a second by Alderman McGinnis, the water committee was instructed to proceed with plans and specifications for the filtration plant and to take steps to plan for the consolidation of the light and pumping stations.

Mayor Crabtree told of some additional data required by the bonding attorneys and said that it is expected to issue the advertisement for the sale of the bonds of about the 4th or 5th of December. No action was taken was taken relative to the railway company's petition as Robert Cassell, who owns a lot in the vicinity of the proposed railway switch has some objection to the plan. On this account action was deferred until the next meeting.

The ordinance prepared by Mr. Bellatti with reference to keeping receipts from the water department in a separate fund was read and laid over under the rules.

WH Visit Pumping Station.
After the matter of taking preliminary steps for the building of a filtration plant and the new power and pumping station had been referred to the water committee, Alderman Chapin of the committee suggested that this was a matter on which the whole council should take action. He said that there were various questions to consider in the matter of locating the consolidated light and pumping stations. As a result of his statements it was decided that all the members of the council, together with Engineers Baldwin, Henderson and Caldwell will visit the pumping station Wednesday afternoon and inspect the possible locations.

By one plan the station would be located adjacent to the Chicago & Alton railroad and by another it would be placed near the present plant and a switch track built in to it. It is the intention to make all preliminary arrangements for the filtration plant and for the light and pumping station so that construction work may begin early next year.

The question of increasing the pay of the employees was brought to attention by Alderman Flynn, with the statement that the men in all departments were entitled to increases.

After very brief discussion it was decided to do nothing just at this time and the intimation was that the matter will have consideration just as soon as the floating debt has been cleaned up and the exact status of the city from the present and future standpoints understood.

CIRCUIT COURT HEARS WILL CONTEST CASE

Proceedings Brought by Letha M. Caldwell vs. W. H. Diggins et al Heard Monday in Circuit Court—Orders Entered Monday by Judge Smith.

Much of the time of Judge Smith in the circuit court yesterday was occupied in hearing the proceedings brought by Letha M. Caldwell vs. William Henry Diggins et al, to contest the will of late Robert Diggins. The complainant is represented by J. O. Priest and Carl E. Robinson, and the defendant by Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty. The late Robert Diggins left a farm of 240 acres in the vicinity of Concord and a number of lots in that town. At the May term of the circuit court this case came to trial and the jury returned a verdict in favor of the complainant, setting forth that the document in question was not really the will of Mr. Diggins, the contention of the complainant that he was not competent to make will being thus upheld. However, on motion of the defendant's attorneys, the court granted a new trial. The jury in this case includes the following: Ray Harmon, C. G. Cantrall, W. W. Schrag, W. F. Council, B. F. Wright, James Trahey, C. A. Gunn, Chester Williams, Samuel Tribbett, E. R. Hembrough, S. F. Sooy.

The following orders were made by Judge Smith Monday:

In the appeal case of George Werries vs. Charles Bossee, appeal was dismissed by the appellant and procedendo ordered.

In the assumpsit suit of Martha H. Allcott vs. the Columbian National Life Insurance Co., leave to plead was extended to Nov. 24.

In the appeal case of the Bureau of National Literature vs. Charles DeSilva, there was a cross motion by the complainant for leave to file cross bill instantaneously.

In the divorce proceedings of Edgar Hines vs. Clara Belle Hines, the defendant was called and order of default was entered against him.

FORUM SPEAKER TALKS ON DIVORCE EVIL

Mrs. Anna Spencer Discusses the Problem of Marriage and Divorce at Congregational Church—Urges Universal Reform in Laws.

An audience of a very gratifying size and character filled the Congregational church Sunday evening on the occasion of the lecture by Mrs. Anna Spencer on the subject of marriage and divorce. The speaker's address was temperate, not radical, full of sound, common sense and excellent advice. The burden of the lecture was prevention by sane, reasonable methods rather than drastic measures for a cure.

A few thoughts are presented. This subject is one of world wide importance especially when we remember that nearly eight millions of men have lost their lives during the terrible world war. The awful excitement is disturbing to family life. In the congested courts of London where so many jurists have been sacrificed to the war there are 1700 divorce cases pending. Accurate statistics are not available; only 13 states keep them, but the rate varies from one in five cases of marriage in some localities to one in 18 in others. The instability of family life is an evil.

In old New England an unmarried man was a curiosity and woman unmarried at thirty was regarded with suspicion. The home is the center and heart of civilization. Time was when the wishes of the parents had great weight in the matter of marriage but now the young people do much as they please and separate without any great protest.

The present age is very individualistic. Two young people join in life and get free easily. Then, too, there are so many childless couples with whom divorce is easier.

Early Marriages Better.
As a rule early marriages are better for it is easier for both to learn the law of give and take and get settled in the journey of life. I do not advocate a universal, national divorce law nor do I say that all divorces are wrong, but I say that in all cases children are better off with parents who do not agree.

When a man's conduct and condition are such that he pollutes his family, separation is better. Women know more of certain diseases now than they knew years ago. The recent war taught a great deal regarding preventable disease and disclosed the alarming prevalence of them. When a mistake is made thru ignorance who shall say that divorce is right? but the great thing is to avoid the mistakes and prevent the abuse.

Segregate Defectives.
In the first place all defectives should be segregated. Society owes that to itself that their kind are not propagated. In the late war 85 per cent of those rejected were from preventable diseases. One of the greatest causes of vice and crime is defective mentality. We give so much to save physical life; we look carefully after the 15 or 20 per cent and neglect the large class.

Many divorces are caused by defective mentality which should have been seen before the marriage was performed. The law should require a health certificate from all persons applying for a marriage license and there should be compulsory annual examinations.

Industrial conditions should be such as to encourage early marriages. Factories should be removed from great commercial centers and located more in rural districts where the home life of the operative would be far better. Home life and child bearing should be made easier. Some say all girls want to marry, but that is not the case.

Take the two factory operatives. John earns $10 a week and Mary $6.00. Now they marry and try to get along on John's ten; children come and both are discouraged and no wonder. Men must measure up to the best standard of women if we are to have marriages of the right kind. Family subsidies and pensions for widows are good.

Domestic and Social Courts.
We need a new baptism of social life; to teach the young the solidarity. We should elevate the idea of family life. Teach boys to be noble in character and fit to be heads of families. We should have domestic courts where people may come together and discuss matters pertaining to family life. We should have social courts where those applying for divorce may be reasoned with.

It is up to the women to say what kind of men shall be husbands of their daughters. There is altogether too much selfishness and neglect of the young. Too little attention is paid to the rising generation for that means self sacrifice on the part of parents and they should make for that means self sacrifice on the part of parents and they should make it. Make home the happiest place in the world. Seek healthful and moral amusements about the home fireside. Keep track of the young and know where they are and give them yourself and the result will be for good.

Abolish commercialized recreation where there is no protection. There are many high grade morons who should not be permitted to marry. Public sentiment should be aroused to prevent issuing licenses where not wise as is the case in some states. The public form is a good thing to bring this matter before the public for the home is the bulwark of the nation and should be guarded with the greatest care.

The Bloomington team which will visit Jacksonville Turkey Day defeated Springfield Saturday for the first time in eighteen years. The score was 20 to 6. Bloomington scored first early in the first period, Kuhn carrying the ball over after a steady march goalward. The Springfield team then rallied, holding the Purple and Gold scoreless for the remainder of the first half.

Springfield tied the score at six apiece soon after the opening of the third period by blocking a punt which Bridges fell on for a touchdown. The Bloomers came back with another score and added a third in the fourth quarter.

A MONTANA LAW

A merchant showed a Journal reporter yesterday a trade paper which contained a copy of a law recently passed in the state of Montana. It requires all merchants to mark each article for sale plainly with both cost and selling price and provides in addition that each merchant shall post conspicuously in his store a list of the principal articles he sells stating plainly the cost and selling price. The Journal doesn't know much about Montana merchants but in this locality it is safe to say they are not profiteering. The Montana law makers say they want to cut down the H. C. L. but they have taken a queer way to accomplish it.

A prominent merchant of this city told a Journal reporter yesterday that he would make a careful list of all his goods in stock and if any man would duplicate them to him at the prices at which he is selling them he would give him a thousand dollars. Other merchants tell much the same story.

A LARGE ORDER.

J. C. Barber, a wealthy resident of Baldwin, Long Island, is an intimate friend of Messrs. Andre & Andre and recently erected a fine residence at his eastern home and bought the furniture of the Messrs. Andre. He was in the city yesterday and had with him an album of views of the various rooms in the dwelling and they show fine taste in the selections made and reflect much credit on the local firm, who could fill such an order at that distance so satisfactorily.

HOTEL WAITERS STRIKE

A gentleman of this city visited Beardstown Sunday but was unable to get anything to eat either in the dining room or cafe of the Park Hotel there. The gentleman said the Park had been a very popular place for years on account of the good table. He was not aware of the grievance the waiters had.

OLD TIME FRIENDS MEET

E. E. Watt of Winchester was a city caller yesterday. Tho the gentleman has grey hair his face looked familiar to the writer who at once very pleasantly remembered the gentleman as a pupil of his in the Jacksonville business college 15 years ago. The student's hair was black then but the smile on his face has not changed and the two had a pleasant time recalling days gone by.

Ladies interested in Furs should see the assortment shown by FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store.

M. L. PONTIUS TALKS OF INDUSTRIAL UNREST

Makes Address Before College Hill Club—Application of Golden Rule by Both Capital and Labor Would Solve Many Problems.

An application of the Golden Rule by both capital and labor would result in the solving of many industrial problems, Rev. M. L. Pontius told members of the College Hill Club Monday afternoon, in an address in which his theme was the present industrial problem.
Mr. Pontius handled the subject in a very able manner and made it plain that the fault of strikes is not necessarily attributable to labor. His audience was much impressed with the views he set forth and after the address a number of questions were asked and answered by the speaker.
In addition to the address of Mr. Pontius, Mrs. Abe Wehl sang in a charming manner a group of songs, with Mrs. J. Edgar Martin as accompanist. She sang, "Joy of the Morning" by Harriet Ware, "At Parting" by Rogers, and "Song of Thanksgiving" by Allispen.

The address of Mr. Pontius is given herewith:
Some people tell us that the present industrial problem is caused by the world war; that this industrial crisis comes naturally in the reconstruction following the world conflict. They forget that the industrial problem has been present in every century of our Christian history. The problem has never been solved. The war between capital and labor never ends.
I was not in sympathy with the miners of bituminous coal when they refused to fulfill their contract which does not expire until April 1920. I was not in sympathy with their demand for a working day of six hours only; or their demand for an increase in wages of sixty per cent.

Operators are at Fault
But I am sympathetic with these men in their effort to procure regular work. Recently I have visited a number of bituminous coal districts. With one exception these miners were working two or three days and then were laid off for a week or ten days. Following the signing of the Armistice there was a decreasing demand for the exportation of bituminous coal. The operators knew that if they let the miners work full time there would soon be such production that the price to the consumer would be decreased.

In order to keep the price of coal up to a certain level and in order to increase the price they compelled the miners to work only three or four days out of every ten. Sixty per cent of the responsibility for the present industrial situation in bituminous coal districts is due to the greed of the operators.
During the past two or three decades capitalists and corporations have made many mistakes in piling up fabulous fortunes by exploiting the labor of men, women and children. A generation ago you could count the millionaires on the fingers of your hands. At the beginning of the war we had 12,000 millionaires in this country; at the close of the war there were about 32,000 millionaires in the United States.
This means that there are 20,000 men in the United States who should have millstones hung about their necks and they should be cast into the depths of the sea. While millions of men were bleeding and dying these twenty thousand men were dealing in necessities of life and becoming millionaires. It is an everlasting disgrace and dishonor for any man to become a millionaire when his fellowmen are fighting and dying for world liberty.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.
You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs.
Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use a quart of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps the throat moist, and tastes pleasant—children like it.
You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, but it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.
Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Miners Cause Just

You will recall the strike of miners of anthracite coal in 1902. These men were working one hundred and ten days per year; they were buying powder of the company at exorbitant prices; they were compelled to live in company houses and purchase their provisions from company stores. The operators refused to arbitrate.

President Roosevelt called the operators and John Mitchell to the white house. The operators were obstinate. When they were finally compelled to arbitrate the board of arbitration gave the miners practically everything they had demanded, indicating that their cause was just. Capitalists and corporations have made serious mistakes in piling up fabulous fortunes at the expense of the laboring man. Regardless of his benefactions the average capitalist is worshipping the almighty dollar.

Let us notice the other side of the industrial situation. We should study the evolution of industry in our modern civilization. There was a time when capital owned labor. That was slavery. Then there came a time when capital owned the soil and the laborer was attached to the land. When the land was sold he went with it. That was feudalism.
Then there came a time in industrial evolution when labor was free. Laboring men could sell their product in the market for the highest price and capitalists could purchase labor on the market at the lowest price. There followed a period when industry was individualistic. The father in the home was the manufacturer. The factory was in the home or in a little building adjacent. He employed apprentices. These boys dreamed of the time when they should be full fledged members of the guild. In those days there were no abnormally rich and no poor.

Then there came machinery and the division of labor. The large factory centrally located caused the home factory to disappear. A new era had dawned in manufacturing and new problems came in the industrial realm.

Labor's Right to Organize.
No one can doubt the right of labor to organize. By organizing laborers procured a living wage; reasonable hours for work; sanitary conditions in the factory; and many other rights and benefits which they justly deserve. But today organized labor is mad. Organized labor has the upper hand, and it is just as unreasonable as capitalism was when it had the upper hand.

There are, among many others, three solutions to our industrial problems. First, organized labor should recognize the fact that the wage a given industry can pay at a given time is determined by the operation of economic laws. The wage problem cannot be solved by a labor union or a church organization. Then capitalists should be compelled to recognize the fact that the laborer must have reasonable hours and adequate wages.
I have a friend who is a stockholder in a publishing house. By virtue of the fact that he is a stockholder he is a capitalist. My friend is a director of this corporation. By virtue of the fact that he is a director he is an employer of labor. My friend is employed by this corporation. By virtue of this fact he is a laboring man. Now, as a laboring man, he might think he should have an increase in wages, but as a stockholder he knows the business will not justify it.

In an industry why cannot the officers make an employee, after he has proved worthy, a stockholder? He would still be a laboring man and he would still have an influence over his fellows. If this were done in many instances, these small stockholders who would be employees, would understand that the business of the industry would or would not justify an increase in wages at a certain time. If the industry is honorable and conducted honestly there is no reason why some plan like this would not prevent much industrial strife.

Then both labor and capital need an application of the Golden Rule. You say this is idealistic. That is true. The Golden Rule contains a truth as potent as divinity. Neither labor nor capital has ever tested this remedy for industrial ills. "Whatever you would that men shall do unto you do even so unto them."

LIQUIDATION IN STOCK MARKET
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The stock market was in process of further liquidation early today but the readjustment was comparatively moderate.

tently a considerable percentage of the offerings according to commission houses representing the further settlement of over extended bull holders at interior centers.
Money rates, foreign exchange and unsettled industrial situation along pending court decision played their several parts in the dealings the market closing with an irregular trend. Call loans opened, and were renewed at 12 per cent,
that rate being the fixed quotation until the final hour when money was freely offered at 10 per cent.
The shorts based much of their early selling on the money market, the new rate for sterling exchange, the coal conference and the famous oil land case in California which was decided against the Southern Pacific railroad company. The Southern Pacific shares broke five points on the news or a total of 7½ points since last week's final quotation.

Motors, oil, steel and equipment groups registered extreme losses of 3 to 5 points. Crucible
Steel, Mexican Petroleum and General Motors being the foremost features, but the latter led the general rally of the last hour with a gain of 5½ points. Sales amounted to 1,100,000 shares.

NAME "BAYER" MEANS ASPIRIN IS GENUINE

Get relief without fear as told in "Bayer package"

The "Bayer Cross" on Aspirin tablets has the same meaning as 14 Karat on gold. Both mean Genuine!

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" should be taken according to the safe and proper directions in each "Bayer" package. Be sure the "Bayer Cross" is on package and on tablets. Then you are getting the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years for the relief of Colds, Pains, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis.

For a few cents you can get a handy tin box containing twelve tablets. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.—Adv.

LIFT OFF CORNS WITH FINGERS

Few Drops of "Freezone." Then Corns Lift Off—No Pain!

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs so little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon any corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off with your fingers. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.

How Strange Things Sometimes Happen

"I want to write you to let you know that I have taken 2 more doses of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and have gained 10 lbs. in the last 2 weeks, although I am thinner around the waist than before, because the bloating in my stomach has all gone. There never was anything in this world half as good as this medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

GRIP. INFLUENZA

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza. Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.—Adv.

BAD COUGH; NIGHT SWEATS; LOST WEIGHT

Mr. Coleman Thought His Time Had Come—But He's Well Now.

"I was taken with a dry, hard cough about 6 months ago. Finally I got so sore across the chest I could hardly breathe; had night sweats so bad everything would be wringing wet, and I coughed continually until I thought it would kill me. Had no appetite, spent over $100 on doctors and medicines, and was worse off than when I started.

"The first bottle of Milk's Emulsion did me more good than all the $100 spent for other treatment. It soon gave me a good appetite, my cough left me, and I have regained the flesh and strength I had before I was sick."

—Arthur Coleman, Box 391, Helena, Ark.

You need an appetite, a good stomach, and some real strength if you want to fight off disease. Give Milk's Emulsion a trial at its maker's risk.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

UNIQUE STORY OF SERGT. ALVIN YORK

Christian Soldier Who Outshot German Battalion With His Rifle and Pistol Gives Himself to People.

Sergt. Alvin York, who killed or captured an entire German machine gun battalion and accomplished what Marshal Foch said was the greatest feat of any Allied soldier, and who appears at Central Christian Church on Saturday, November 29, 8 p. m., under the direction of the Rotary Club is not only remarkable as a soldier and the holder of half a dozen medals from the American and foreign governments, but is unique in his story and his character. He is a Tennessee mountaineer, red-headed, and a born fighting man, with an uncanny ability to hit whatever he aims at with rifle or pistol. Besides that, though, he is a devout Christian and during the early months of his army service was much troubled in his conscience about the rightfulness of killing Germans.

Finally, however, his commanding officers showed him that the only way to get peace and democracy in the world was to win the war and that the only way to win the war was to kill Germans. With his conscience clear on that point Corporal York went into battle.

The battle that made him famous, which occurred on October 8, 1918, near Chatel-Chery, resulted in one man, armed with a rifle and a pistol, killing more than 20 Germans, capturing 132 others, including four officers, and putting out of action 35 machine guns. The whole facts were carefully investigated by army officers and later by George Pattullo, representing the Saturday Evening Post, and the result of these official investigations established the battle as the most amazing feat at arms of the war. That it could have been done at all seems nothing short of a miracle.

and then, when York, loaded with honors, returned to the United States to find himself famous and sought after by vaudeville and theatrical managers and movie producers, he quietly declined the fortunes that were offered him for public appearance and returned to his native mountains in Fentress county, Tennessee, where Yorks have lived this past century and more.

There he found that for two years there had been no school held in his end of the county and that hundreds of children, not only in that county, but in other neighboring sparsely settled counties were going without an opportunity for an education. That started him thinking and the result of his thoughts was the Alvin C. York Foundation, a non-profit corporation organized by leading men of Tennessee, to direct Sergt. York in a lecture tour, the entire proceeds of which are to be devoted to the founding and maintaining of the right sort of a school in the mountain country.

George Wilton

Last night's audience mystified

Tries vainly to detect difference between voice of famous tenor and RE-CREATION by Edison's new phonograph

Those present at Northminster Church last night saw George Wilton Ballard walk onto the stage. They saw him take his position next to a beautiful cabinet. They saw his lips give voice to the opening lines of Mother. Then suddenly his lips were still—but the song kept flowing on.

How came this? They were hearing Mr. Ballard's voice, yet Mr. Ballard was not singing. The entire audience gasped as it slowly realized that it had been unable to distinguish between Mr. Ballard's voice and the RE-CREATION of that voice by the New Edison.

This was the daring test undertaken last night at Northminster Church by Thomas A. Edison. He sought to prove that no difference exists between the voice of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. The musically cultured of Jacksonville were invited to pass judgment. No test could have been more exacting.

Mr. Ballard made comparison after comparison. The mystified audience tried vainly to catch a difference between the original rendition and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. No one could tell one from the other.

Assisting Mr. Ballard, and equally remarkable and praiseworthy were the violin selections of Willard Osborne.

It was a triumph whole and complete for the New Edison.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

The instrument used in last night's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada, $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

The New Edison alone of all phonographs is capable of sustaining this test. Until Mr. Edison knew it would do so, he regarded his work as unfinished.

Ask some one who was present last night. Learn the amazing truth. Then come in and let us prove it personally to you.
